Dear Dot -
Don't forget all the fun we had the last three years - I know you couldn't if you wanted to.
I know it must be awfully lonesome
at school this year without Jane and me to show you and Martha Ann how to act.
Reckon you'll make it through. "Glee's hoping"
you the best of luck!

Love,
Charlene

Dedication

MRS. JOHN J. COLVARD

To our beloved sponsor, who at various times has worked with us and played with us, praised us and scolded us, laughed with us and sympathized with us, hoped for us and despaired of us; who, in other words, has been not only a capable teacher, but, above all, a sincere friend.

In Memoriam

H. F. CARPENTER

In memory of Mr. Carpenter, our Junior Sponsor, who left us January 9, 1951.

"His was a sterling character. Its genuineness was reflected in his gentlemanly demeanor at all times, his highminded sense of duty to his profession and to the public, his unselfishness, his kindness, his understanding, and his wholesome good-fellowship."

From a Resolution passed by the Graham County Chapter of the North Carolina Education Association.

Class Prophecy

Following is an excerpt from Dr. John Watson's Diary:

"Robbinsville, N. C., 3 - 24 - 72

"The 1952 class of Robbinsville High School held its Reunion Banquet in the Hill Dining Hall of Robbinsville Junior College.

"I had not seen most of my classmates since that final day of imprisonment in Robbinsville High. The last night was a night of joy, sorrow, and final good-byes. So seeing all of my classmates after twenty years was a very happy occasion.

"Mrs. John Colvard, our teacher back in those days, has not changed except that her hair has silvered. But she still resides in Robbinsville with her husband as she always has. She was seated at the head of the table.

"Dorothy Hensley was first on her right. Dot, as we know her, is now a great opera singer. She has risen high in music.

"Jim Hedden, next to Dot, is a Hollywood film director and producer.

"Leamon Stegall also is a singer, but he is on the radio and television. When Bing Crosby died in 1963, Leamon stepped into his shoes.

"I, John Watson, am a country doctor in North Carolina, thus achieving my greatest dream.

"Bobby Hill, Junior Peterson, Ronald Shuler, Gordon Deyton, and Orville Crisp went to New York, and, by banking and business in Wall Street, have all become very wealthy men.

"J. C. Payne and Doris Quilliams have been happily married for ten years, and settled down. J. C.'s business is thriving and he is the proud father of twin boys.

"Wayne Watson, Gene Orr, and Eugene Shope are high officials in the air power of the United States. The boys all have gone to the top in their fields.

"We have a representation from our class in the modeling business. Carolyn Sue Phillips, Jo Bina Queen, and Shirley Griffith all went to New York and made good. If I were not happily married ----- well, I am.

"Maxine Patton and Juanita Gates went to Hollywood. Juanita is the foremost actress in the United States, while Maxine is the leading comedienne.

"Jo Ann Denton has become America's leading artist.

"Jane McClung and Betty Elzey have gone into Congress and have become very successful.

"Pauline Eller, Ruthe Wilkey, and Loyce Irons married the men of their choice and settled in Robbinsville.

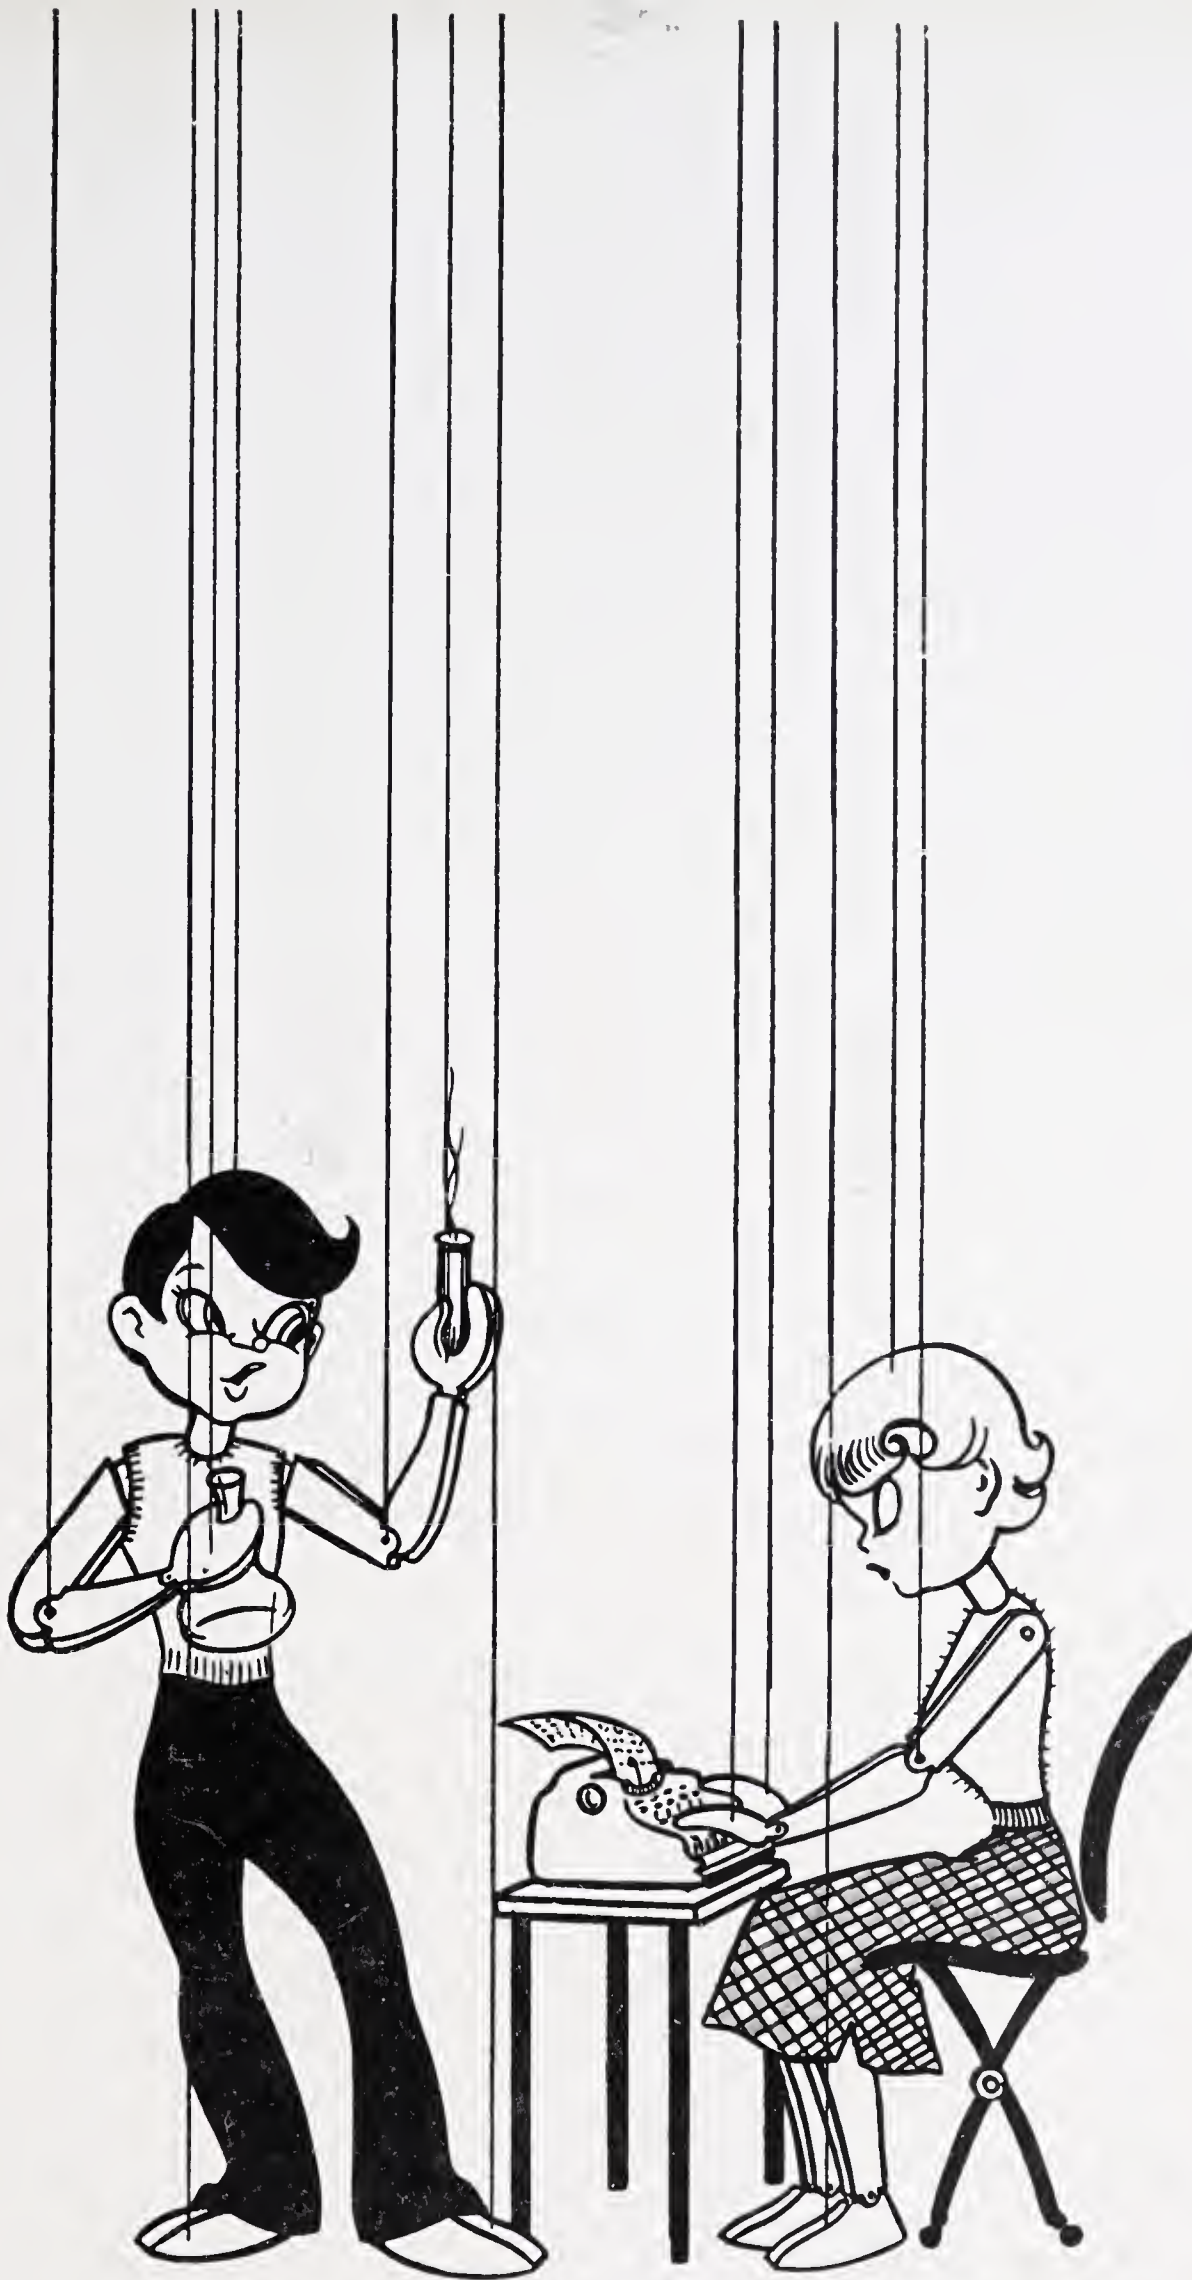

"Tempe Walters and Sue Carpenter are Presidential secretaries.

"Marie Waldroup and Hazel Williams are on the radio as 'Maggie and Flo', a wonderful comedy team.

"Delora Waldroup has become Robbinsville Junior College's Athletic Director. Her girls' team recently won the North State Junior College Championship.

"Mary Sue Ayers still lives in Robbinsville.

"We enjoyed a most pleasant evening together and voted to hold our next class reunion five years from now on April 3, 1977."
